

French Dialogue Recording Script

Purpose: Read each line aloud in French and record it. The actors will use your recordings as a pronunciation reference for their own performance, so natural pace and clear diction matter more than dramatic acting.

How to use this doc: Lines are numbered in script order. Please save each recording as Line-01.mp3, Line-02.mp3, etc. (or similar), matching the numbers below. English translations are included only so you understand the meaning/emotion — you don't need to read them aloud.

Part 1 — Full French Lines

Line 1 — MAN (V.O.) — Park bench, writing to his mother (1st attempt, then scratched out)

Chère Maman... Je pense à toi.

(Dear Mom... I miss you.)

Line 2 — MAN (V.O.) — 2nd attempt at the letter

Chère Maman... Je réfléchissais à l'idée de marche en avant... Et ça m'a rappelé notre voyage en train de Toulouse à... Je ne sais plus où...

(Dear Mom... I have started thinking about progress... And it reminded me of our train ride from Toulouse to... I can't remember where...)

Line 3 — MAN (V.O.) — 3rd/final attempt at the letter

Maman... Je repensais à notre dernière conversation... Que voulais-tu dire quand tu as dit : « Il faut entendre le mot avec la résonance du monde. » Maman, dis-moi... parce que le mot--

(Mom... I was thinking about our last conversation... What did you mean when you said, "One must hear the word with the sound of the world?" Mother, tell me... because the word--)

(Note: this line cuts off mid-sentence — trail off naturally, don't land hard on the final word.)

Line 4 — WOMAN (O.S.) — an unseen voice answering Man's search for a word

Appelle...

(Beckons/calls — this is the word Man is trying to remember.)

(Note: this exact line repeats 3 separate times in the script (see Lines 4a/4b/4c below). Please record it 3 times with the same reading each time, OR record once and we'll reuse the file — your call.)

Line 4a — WOMAN (O.S.) — repeat

Appelle...

Line 4b — WOMAN (O.S.) — repeat

Appelle...

Line 5 — MAN (V.O.) — writing again, now with the word recovered

Le mot m'appelle loin du confort...

(The word beckons me away from comfort...)

Line 6 — WOMAN — much later in the script, misspeaking a phrase (see note)

L'avenir nous prend les bras... Or something.

(She means to say "L'avenir nous tend les bras" — "The future awaits us" — but misspeaks it as "prend les bras," which lands closer to "The future seizes/grabs us by the arms." This is intentional...she gets the phrase slightly wrong. Please read it as written, not the "corrected" version.)

(Note: only "L'avenir nous prend les bras..." should be read in French — "Or something" is spoken in English by the actress and is not part of your recording.)

Part 2 — Mixed French/English Lines (for reference only)

These lines are spoken mostly in English but contain a French word. You don't need to record these unless we ask — just context in case it's useful:

- MAN: "Le mot... beckons..." (repeated 3x) — "Le mot" ("The word") is French; "beckons" is spoken in English because the character hasn't yet remembered the French word "Appelle."
-

Quick reference: all lines in one block (for a fast read-through take)

1. Chère Maman... Je pense à toi.
2. Chère Maman... Je réfléchissais à l'idée de marche en avant... Et ça m'a rappelé notre voyage en train de Toulouse à... Je ne sais plus où...
3. Maman... Je repensais à notre dernière conversation... Que voulais-tu dire quand tu as dit : « Il faut entendre le mot avec la résonance du monde. » Maman, dis-moi... parce que le mot--
4. Appelle...
5. Le mot m'appelle loin du confort...
6. L'avenir nous prend les bras...

Thank you! Feel free to do a couple of takes per line if you're not sure about pacing...we can pick the best one.